

APAEP Teacher Application

The following form serves as an application to work as a teacher with the Alabama Prison Arts + Education Project (APAEP). Upon submission of this form, you are applying to work with APAEP and you are stating that you understand that you are required to have reliable personal transportation, as most facilities are outside of the Auburn area and require travel. Also, by submitting this application form, you are stating that you understand that you will be required to attend APAEP training sessions and follow all rules and regulations of the APAEP program.

In addition, the Alabama Department of Corrections does a background check on all people enter their facilities. Previous interaction with the justice system does not prohibit you from working with this program. If you are selected to teach with the program, we can talk about any information that might come up on a check.
